

VOLUNTEER OPPORTUNITIES

Our Mission: To empower the children living in the city of Camden with hope and for success.

1. Kids Alley Saturday Live

This is an interactive, high-energy program for children ages 3 to 12. This is a creative arts program consisting of drama, music, games, puppetry, audio and video and stage lighting. Prior training not required. On-the-job training. During special holidays we have big rallies involving hundreds of children. Volunteers can engage in but not limited to; live music with an instrument, artwork, team leaders to the children, conducting the games, short skits, operating the audio and video during the program, crowd control, attendance taker, set-up and striking the stage, simple set construction and working with children, ages 3 to 6, and special needs children during their lesson time. All skills and talents are welcome to this program. Basically assisting the director in weekly mini “Nickelodeon” type productions. Hours are 9am to 12:45pm on Saturdays.

This program is held at Volunteers of America• 235 White Horse Pike Collingswood, NJ 08107.

2. Kids Alley Learning Center

This is an after-school program for children from K to 8th grades. Mentors and tutors are needed, particularly to work with children to improve their grades. Program runs Monday to Thursday from 3:30 to 5pm. Tutors will work with specific children and spend their entire time helping the selected students in homework remediation and enrichment as well as all scheduled activities for that day.

This program is located at Lutheran Church of Our Savior - 204 Wayne Ave Haddonfield, NJ 08033 on Mondays and Christ the King 200 Windsor Ave Haddonfield NJ 08033 on Tues. - Thurs.
